About Playeum

Playeum is an independent charity that champions children's voices and the development of 21st-century skills through play and the arts.

We are dedicated towards social impact and work with all children, including children from marginalised backgrounds and children with special needs.

At Playeum, we put the child at the center of our work and believe that all adults have a vital role to play in children's lives. We strive to redefine how children are viewed, as we believe that they are innately creative and competent individuals.

Why play, creativity & the arts?

Play is more than an activity; it is a way to make sense of the world.

Play & the arts are universal; it helps bring people together to stay connected.

Play nurtures crucial 21st century skills.

Play, creativity and the arts are intrinsically linked.

Staying connected through play and the arts

Technology has taken an accelerated step in the lives of both children and adults. It is a means to keep us connected to the people around us, and the use of it will grow increasingly. What are some of the ways we can leverage on it in a more meaningful and hands-on manner?

Play and the arts have been known to be powerful tools of communication and expression, and can be used alongside technology. In 2020, we started Playeum at Home, weekly live crafting sessions to continue engaging children in play through digital means. A guide on how to facilitate such sessions will be made available in April.

As part of SSDB 2021, Playeum is organising Kampung Konversations, inviting preschool educators to experience the different ways play and the arts can be used to connect with the community across digital platforms.

Kampung Konversations for Educators

Kampung Konversations are kasual, komfy, kkommunal chats meant for adults to take some time off their work day to get connected with art and meaningful sharing with others.

It is a safe space for everyone to come in, relax, and just craft along with us! Let yourself loose and just explore your creative side :)

This is an online session and will be held on Zoom.
