Outcomes and Impact on Stakeholders' Involvement

Positive impact on the children: The children were able to share the highlights of the event, and how they were able to do their part during #JOmFUNraisingRaya@PC4 event. The children learned that the values behind Hari Raya includes acts of charity and giving alms, and community spiritedness.

Outcomes and Impact on Stakeholders' Involvement

Positive impact on the community: We built the bridge to a healthy relationship with our Community Partner, Al Islah Mosque through the event. This also help us establish a 3 year sustainable pan with Al Islah Mosque, which continues to provide an enriched cultural experience for our students which includes planned filed trip (Learning Journeys), participation in Ramadhan Break-Fast event etc.

We heightened the awareness of the importance of the Malay language through traditional games, crafts, kuih and performing arts. This awareness is also shared nation-wide through media coverage, and word of mouth (with parents being the positive mouthpieces/advocates)

Outcomes and Impact on Stakeholders' Involvement

Positive impact on parents: Through our collaboration, we built the capacity of our Parent Support Group, as they participated and actively facilitated the event through managing of the various activity booths. We also found active Parent Volunteers who were keen to lend their areas of expertise and strengths (such as photography, and knowledge of traditional games and sports).

Project Summary

Our team made an impactful difference in establishing and building community partnership which raised the understanding of the virtues behind the festival of Hari Raya Aidilfitri through acts of charity and pursuance of knowledge, celebrated the different cultural practices relevant to the festival and raised cultural awareness through the use of the Malay language in artistic forms (various cultural performance such as Dikir Barat, Malay Joget) through the use of a bilingual approach (Malay and English). The project ended with a few volunteer(s) who joined in to distribute the dry rations to the different units/ households in our Punggol Neighbourhood.

Learning points: Through this project, children were exposed to some common Malay words and vocabulary. Children were given the opportunity to play their part in contributing to the community in helping the needy. This project served as a platform for children-parents and community (Al-Islah) to collaborate in understanding the Malay heritage and culture and at the same time raising fund for Blessings in Harmony. We learn to recognize and acknowledge the strength of others as well as Highlights: We are significantly proud of the children (especially non-Malays) who persevered in speaking and singing in Malay Language in their performances. At the end of the SSDB event, children articulated the message behind 'start small, dream big'; one person may not be able to do all great things, but each of us can do our part by doing little things in achieving our big dream. We achieved and exceeded the targeted amount of donation for Blessings In Harmony.
