

DREAM JOBS

Paste your Class Photo Here

What do you want to be when you grow up?
Dress the part and take a class photo!

The class portrait activity above is inspired by the artwork by

ARTIST: Jing Quek

ARTWORK TITLE:
Singapore Idols - Army Boys

YEAR IT WAS COMPLETED: 2006

Singapore Idols - Army Boys shows a group of National Servicemen (NSmen) taking a photograph in their uniform at an outdoor training area. They stand close together and confidently, like celebrities in magazines. Through this photograph, the artist Jing Quek celebrates the common, everyday people who forms part of Singapore.

More information about the artist and artwork can be found in
THE LEARNING GALLERY short guide, pages 8–9.

This artwork can be found in The Learning Gallery, where the artist has three photographs of different groups of people in Singapore. Contact SAM Education team to make a booking for a visit to The Learning Gallery!

Email: education@singaporeartmuseum.sg | Phone: +65 6697 9776

Snap photos of the completed activity or visits to The Learning Gallery and share with us – tag us at #SingaporeArtMuseum #thelearninggallery